

2025 Inland Northwest Spelling Bee Rules

The Scripps National Spelling Bee has no authority over the conduct of local spelling bees other than the Scripps National Spelling Bee taking place Memorial Day weekend in National Harbor, Maryland, near Washington, D.C. This includes the Inland Northwest Spelling Bee and all district bees. The national office will not render judgments relating to the conduct or outcome of other spelling bees. Individuals bearing complaints about the Inland Northwest Spelling Bee should register concerns with local spelling bee official:

DECISIONS OF LOCAL SPELLING BEE OFFICIALS ARE FINAL

- I. Eligibility: In order to qualify for the 2025 Scripps National Spelling Bee in May, and the Inland Northwest Spelling Bee on February 8, 2025, participants must meet the following requirements:
1. The speller must not have won a Scripps National Spelling Bee championship near Washington, D.C. However, previous Inland Northwest Spelling Bee champions may participate.
 2. The speller must attend a school, belong to a home school association, or be part of a home school family in the five northern counties of Idaho that is officially enrolled with the Scripps National Spelling Bee.
 3. The speller must not have passed beyond the eighth grade on or before February 1, 2025.
 4. The speller must not have repeated fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, or eighth grade for the purpose of extending spelling bee eligibility.
 5. The speller, or the speller's parent, legal guardian, or school official acting on the speller's behalf, must not have declared to another entity an academic classification higher than eighth grade for any purpose, including high school graduation equivalency or proficiency examinations and/or examinations such as the PSAT, SAT, or ACT.
 6. The speller must not have earned the legal equivalent of a high school diploma.
 7. The speller must not have completed or have been enrolled in more than six high school-level courses or two college-level courses on or before April 30, 2025.
 8. The speller must not eschew normal school activity to study for spelling bees. The Scripps National Spelling Bee defines normal school activity as adherence to at least four courses of study other than language arts, spelling, Latin, Greek, vocabulary, and etymology for at least four hours per weekday for 34 of the 38 weeks between Aug. 27, 2024, and May 24, 2025.

9. The speller must not have reached his/her 15th birthday on or before Aug. 31, 2025.
10. The speller must have qualified for the Inland Northwest Spelling Bee through participation in a final district spelling bee or private school bee on or before Feb. 1, 2025.
11. The speller, upon being named champion of the Inland Northwest Spelling Bee, agrees to participate in local, media-related activities. In addition, upon qualifying for the 2025 Scripps National Spelling Bee near Washington, D.C., the speller must submit a completed Champion Bio Form, a Certification of Eligibility Form, a signed Appearance Consent and Release Form, and photo to the Scripps National Spelling Bee. The speller will notify the bee, at least 24 hours prior to the first day of competition in the 2025 Scripps National Spelling Bee near Washington, D.C., if any of the statements made on the Certification of Eligibility Form are no longer true or require updating. The sponsor will provide access to the necessary forms.
12. The speller must not have any first, second- or third-degree relatives (i.e. sibling, parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, half-sibling, first cousin or great grandparent) who are current employees of The E.W. Scripps Company.

The Scripps National Spelling Bee may disqualify, prior to or during competition, any speller who is not in compliance with any of its eligibility requirements; and it may, at any time between the conclusion of the 2024 Scripps National Spelling Bee and April 30, 2025, require any speller who is found to have not been in compliance with any of the eligibility requirements to forfeit the prizes, rank, and other benefits accorded to the speller as a result of participation in the 2025 Scripps National Spelling Bee.

- II. Format: The Inland Northwest Spelling Bee will be conducted orally (not in writing or in a combination of the two). The competition is conducted in rounds. During each round, spellers will come to the microphone and spell one word. After the practice round, round one will begin and so on. Each speller remaining in the spelling bee at the start of a round shall spell one word in the round, except as provided in Rule 10. Words will progress in difficulty during each subsequent round. Each participant will approach the microphone and be asked to spell a word during the round. After the speller is finished, the judges will signal a light box to indicate correct (designated by a green light) or incorrect (a red light).

If the speller correctly spells the word, he or she will rejoin the other contestants in his or her seat on the stage.

Upon incorrectly spelling a word (as indicated by the red light), the speller will rejoin the contestants in his or her seat on the stage until the end of the round, at which time he or she will be dismissed to join the audience. The next word on the pronouncer's list is given to the next speller and so on. If an appeal is filed at the end of the round on behalf of the speller and the judges determine from the appeals process (see Rule 11) that the speller did not misspell the word, the participant will be reinstated to the competition. If the judges determine from the appeals process that the speller did, in fact, misspell the word, the participant will remain eliminated. DECISIONS OF LOCAL SPELLING BEE OFFICIALS ARE FINAL.

3. Word Lists: spelling bee officials are responsible for selecting the word lists that will be used at their spelling bees. The Inland Northwest Spelling Bee pronouncer will select words from the 2025 Regional Bee List, generated by the Scripps National Spelling Bee office. Scripps National Spelling Bee word lists include some words from the School Spelling Bee Study List and Words of the Champions, as well as some “end-of-bee” words. All words are from Merriam-Webster Unabridged, the official dictionary of the Scripps National Spelling Bee, and available at <http://unabridged.merriam-webster.com/>.
4. Special needs: Spelling bee officials will strive to provide accommodation for spellers who have physical challenges. All requests for spelling bee officials to accommodate special needs involving sight, hearing, speech, or movement must be directed to spelling bee officials well in advance of the spelling bee date. The judges have discretionary power to amend oral spelling requirements on a case-by-case basis for spellers with diagnosed medical conditions involving sight, hearing, speech, or movement.
5. Pronouncer’s role: The pronouncer strives to pronounce words according to the diacritical markings in Scripps National Spelling Bee word lists.

Homonyms: If a word has one or more homonyms, the pronouncer indicates which word is to be spelled by defining the word.

Speller’s requests: The pronouncer responds to the speller’s requests for a definition, sentence, part of speech, language(s) of origin, and alternate pronunciation(s). The pronouncer does not entertain root word questions, requests for alternate definitions, or requests for markedly slower pronunciation.

Pronouncer’s sense of helpfulness: The pronouncer may offer word information, without the speller having requested the information, if the pronouncer senses that the information is helpful and the information is presented in the entry for the word in a 2025 Scripps National Spelling Bee word list.

6. Judges’ role: The judges uphold the rules and determine whether or not words are spelled correctly. With advising from other Inland Northwest Spelling Bee officials, they also render final decisions on appeals in accordance with Rule 11. They are in complete control of the competition, and their decisions are final on all questions.

Interaction with the speller: Because seeing the speller’s lip movements may be critical in detecting misunderstandings or misspellings, the judges encourage spellers to face them when pronouncing and spelling the word.

Notice of rules: The Spelling Bee officials ensure that all spellers and audience members are given an opportunity to receive a complete copy of the rules prior to the start of the spelling bee.

Misunderstandings: The judges participate in the exchange of information between the speller and pronouncer if they feel that clarification is needed. Also, the judges listen carefully to the speller’s pronunciation of the word; and, if they sense that the speller has misunderstood the word, the judges will work with the speller and pronouncer until they are satisfied that reasonable attempts have been made to assist the speller in understanding the word. While the judges are responsible for attempting to detect a speller’s misunderstanding, it is sometimes impossible to detect a misunderstanding until a spelling error has been made. The judges are not responsible for the speller's misunderstanding.

Pronouncer errors: The judges compare the pronouncer's pronunciation with the diacritical markings in the word list. If the judges feel that the pronouncer's pronunciation does not match the pronunciation specified in the diacritical markings, the judges direct the pronouncer to correct the error as soon as it is detected.

Disqualifications for reasons other than clear misspelling: The judges will disqualify a speller (1) who refuses a request to start spelling; (2) who does not approach the microphone when it is time to receive the word; (3) who does not comply with the eligibility requirements; (4) who engages in unsportsmanlike conduct; (5) who, in the process of retracing a spelling, alters the letters or sequence of letters from those first uttered; or (6) who, in the process of spelling, utters unintelligible or nonsense sounds.

Speller activities that do not merit disqualification: The judges may not disqualify a speller (1) misspelling in the practice round (if used); (2) for failing to pronounce the word either before or after spelling it, (3) for asking a question, or (4) for noting or failing to note the capitalization of a word, the presence of a diacritical mark, the presence of a hyphen or other form of punctuation, or spacing between words in an open compound.

7. Speller's role: The speller makes an effort to face the judges and pronounce the word for the judges before spelling it and after spelling it. The speller, while facing the judges, makes an effort to utter each letter distinctly and with sufficient volume to be understood by the judges. Once a speller begins to spell, what is spoken is what is counted as spelling by the judges. Therefore, if a speller decides to start over again, they should announce that to the judges so that the sequence of the letters spelled does not get confused. The speller may ask the pronouncer to say the word again, define it, use it in a sentence, provide the part of speech, provide the language(s) of origin, and/or provide an alternate pronunciation(s).

Misunderstandings: The speller is responsible for any misunderstanding of the word unless (1) the pronouncer never provided a correct pronunciation; (2) the pronouncer provided incorrect information regarding the definition, part of speech, or language of origin; or (3) the speller correctly spelled a homonym of the word and the pronouncer failed to either offer a definition or distinguish the homonyms.

8. Correction of a misspelling: The pronouncer will not ask the speller to correct another speller's misspelling, even in end-of-bee circumstances.
9. Errors: Upon incorrectly spelling a word, the speller is eliminated from the competition, except as provided in Rule 10.
10. End-of-bee procedure:
 1. If all spellers in a round misspell: If none of the spellers remaining in the spelling bee at the start of a round spells a word correctly during that round, all remain in the competition and a new round begins.
 2. Ties: All spellers eliminated in the same round are tied for the same place.

3. If only one speller in a round spells correctly: If only one speller spells correctly in a round, a new one-word round begins and the speller is given an opportunity to spell the next word on the list (anticipated championship word). If the speller succeeds in correctly spelling the anticipated championship word in this one-word round, the speller is declared the champion.

Example: In Round 12 there are four spellers. Spellers 6 and 21 misspell. Speller 30 spells correctly. Speller 42 misspells. So, Speller 30 is the only speller in the round to spell correctly. Speller 30 begins Round 13—a one-word round—and is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 30 correctly spells the anticipated championship word and is declared champion.

Example: Two spellers spell in Round 10. Speller 14 misspells. Speller 25 spells correctly. Speller 25 begins Round 11—a one-word round—and is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 25 correctly spells the anticipated championship word and is declared champion.

Example: Two spellers spell in Round 16. Speller 3 spells correctly. Speller 9 misspells. Speller 3 begins Round 17—a one-word round—and is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 3 correctly spells the anticipated championship word and is declared champion.

VERY IMPORTANT: If a speller misspells the anticipated championship word in a one-word round: A new round begins with ALL the spellers who spelled (correctly and incorrectly) in the previous round. These spellers spell in their original order.

Example: In Round 8 there are three spellers. Speller 12 spells correctly and Spellers 23 and 37 misspell. Round 9—a one-word round—begins, and Speller 12 is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 12 misspells the anticipated championship word. Round 10 begins and includes Spellers 12, 23, and 37. The rules prescribe that spellers 12, 23, and 37 spell in their original order; so Speller 12 gets the next word on the list even though Speller 12 misspelled the previous word on the list. Round 10 is not complete until all three spellers have spelled.

11. Appeals: The speller's parent(s), legal guardian or teacher may appeal to the judges for the speller's reinstatement provided that the appeal is in compliance with the appeal protocol. The judges will not entertain appeals from individuals seeking to dislodge another speller from the competition. Appeals must be filed immediately at the end of a round.

The judges render final decisions on appeals in accordance with reinstatement protocol.

Appeal protocol:

A written appeal must be hand delivered to the designated appeals official. The deadline for delivering an appeal is before the speller affected would have received his/her next word had he/she stayed in the spelling bee; however, to minimize disruptions to the spelling bee, every effort will be made to deliver an appeal by the end of the round in which the speller was eliminated. When five or fewer spellers remain, the written appeal requirement is suspended, and an oral appeal must be made before the speller would have received his/her next word had he/she stayed in the spelling bee. A written appeal must provide the speller's name, the word in question, and the reason the speller should be reinstated. While the competition is in session, individuals who have filed appeals may not directly approach the judges unless explicit permission to approach the judges has been given. The judges will contact the speller if they decide to reinstate the speller. To minimize disruption to the pace of the spelling bee and the concentration of the spellers, the judges are under no obligation to stop the spelling bee in order to discuss with the speller's parent(s), legal guardian, or teacher a denied appeal. The judges' decisions are final and are subject neither to review nor to reversal by the Scripps National Spelling Bee's headquarters office.

Reinstatement protocol:

Pronouncer mispronunciation: An appeal claiming that a speller's elimination from the spelling bee was due to pronunciation error will be denied unless there is agreement that the pronouncer never offered a correct pronunciation.

Alternate pronunciations: An appeal claiming that the pronouncer did not offer alternate pronunciations will be denied unless it is determined that the speller requested alternate pronunciations and the pronouncer did not accommodate the speller's request for alternate pronunciations and it appears that the speller's spelling almost matches the correct spelling.

Speller's misunderstanding: An appeal claiming that the speller's elimination from the spelling bee was due to the speller's not understanding the word (its pronunciation and/or other information about the word) will be denied. It is the speller's responsibility to understand the word.

Speller offered correct spelling, as indicated in this guide: An appeal claiming that the speller correctly spelled the word will be denied unless an audio recording of the bee's proceedings or bee officials' recollections clearly indicate that the word was indeed spelled correctly.

Exception: If the speller's spelling is listed in Merriam-Webster Unabridged, the speller will be reinstated if all of the following three criteria are met: (1) The pronunciations of the words are identical, (2) the definitions of the words are identical, and (3) the words are clearly identified as being standard variants of each other. Spellings at other locations having temporal labels (such as archaic, obsolete), stylistic labels (such as substand, nonstand), or regional labels (such as North, Midland, Irish) which differ from main entry spellings not having these status labels will not be accepted as correct.

Speller offered correct spelling, as indicated in a dictionary other than Merriam-Webster Unabridged: An appeal claiming that the speller spelled the word correctly according to a dictionary other than Merriam-Webster Unabridged, will be denied.

Homonym: An appeal claiming that the speller's elimination was unfair because the speller's word is a homonym will be denied unless the pronouncer failed to define the word and the speller correctly spelled a homonym of the word.

Incorrect or unsolicited information: An appeal claiming that the speller's elimination was unfair because the pronouncer offered incorrect or unsolicited information about the word will be denied unless it is determined that the pronouncer indeed gave factually incorrect information and it appears that the speller's spelling would have been correct if not for the incorrect or unsolicited information provided by the pronouncer.

Bee officials failed to correct a misunderstanding: An appeal claiming that the speller misspelled because the judges and/or pronouncer failed to correct the speller's mispronunciation of the word will be denied. It is sometimes impossible to detect a speller's mispronunciation or misunderstanding, and ultimately it is the responsibility of the speller to understand and correctly pronounce the word.

Disqualification request: An appeal seeking to dislodge another speller from the spelling bee will be denied.
